Counselor-

Sport: The Lake County Farm Bureau will be hiring a part-time office assistant for the summer. This would be a great job for students interested in gaining skills in office work, filing, data entry, QuickBooks, event planning, fundraising and membership activities. There will also be work involving administration of the Irrigated Lands regulatory program.

The position is open from June to September, but we are flexible on end-date if the student needs to leave to start school. There is also an opportunity to extend the position past September.

The application is attached; deadline to apply is May 31, 2017.
